

THE WAR IN THE EAST

Fierce Fighting but the Power of Superior Numbers Tell Against the Greeks.

MILES TO VISIT GREECE

Congressman Wm. S. Holman, of Indiana, Pays the Debt of Nature in Washington.

APPOINTMENTS OF A DAY

LONDON, England, April 22.—Prince Constantine's plan of campaign is very clear; while the Turkish army is at Larissa, Constantine is pushing to the rear of the Turkish forces, cutting off their line of retreat and base of supplies. With the support of the Greek fleet, and with 40,000 additional soldiers, he expects to catch Edhem Pasha's army on the plains of Thessaly. It is believed the Turks suspect the trap and are prepared for them.

According to a special from Athens, to-day, a massacre of Greek citizens has occurred near Preveza. The Greek troops, have stormed five villages occupied by the Turks. The situation on the Thessalian frontier is considered highly critical. It is feared the Greek troops, exhausted by three days' hard fighting, will be unable to resist much longer the furious attacks of the Turks.

ATHENS, Greece, April 22.—The people are now realizing the superior military strength of the Turks, but do not despair, but rather set their teeth harder, for a more desperate struggle at all points. Everywhere the people are offering the assistance of men and money to the government, and 20,000 volunteers will have assembled before the close of the week.

LARISSA, Turkey, April 22.—The Turkish advance parties around Tarnovo have occupied Nazario. The Greeks have fallen back, owing to being greatly outnumbered by the Turks. General Mastropas' brigade continues to make a brilliant resistance to the assaults of the Turks at Passamaui.

MILAGUNA, April 22.—Fierce fighting has been in progress in the Milaguna pass since daylight, Wednesday morning. The Greeks have tried to storm the Turkish position, but have been repeatedly repulsed, with tremendous losses.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Senator Allen, of Nebraska, offered a resolution in the senate, sympathizing with the Greeks in the struggle against the Turks, and directing the president to communicate the facts to the Grecian government. It was referred to the foreign relations committee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 22.—It is expected that General Nelson A. Miles and staff will proceed immediately to observe the hostilities in Greece. This action indicates that the authorities expect a general conflict.

Details of a Suicide.

LONDON, April 22.—A painful sensation has been created by the publication of details of the suicide of Charles Troke, a veteran of the Crimean war, seventy-two years of age, who cut his throat a few days ago owing to his inability through ill health to obtain employment, and his horror of becoming an inmate of the poor-house. The veteran had been a corporal in the famous grenadier guards and was mentioned in orders for gallant services at the battle of the Alma, Balaclava, Inkerman and the siege of Sebastopol. When his time in the service expired, he re-enlisted, and when he finally sought his discharge, he was given the highest papers, together with the munificent pension of one shilling, or twenty-five cents, per day.

Sabbath Observance.

TORONTO, Ont., April 22.—Friends of Sabbath observance from every municipality in the province are arriving, to-day, to take part in a general conference under the auspices of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance, which opens to-morrow. This afternoon, the annual meeting of the alliance is in progress at the Bible house. The annual report states that not only the alliance but organized bodies outside of it, and also individuals in sympathy with its effort, are working earnestly to secure the total abolition of unnecessary Sunday labor, to the end that a day of rest for all people may be maintained.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Assistant Secretary of War Melke John was sworn in and assumed his duties, to-day.

CONGRESSMAN HOLMAN DEAD.

The "Watch Dog of the Treasury" Dies at Washington City.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 22.—A consultation of his doctors, this morning, declared Congressman W. S. Holman's case hopeless. He is still unconscious.

Later—Congressman Holman died at 2:10 o'clock, this afternoon. William S. Holman was born in Dearborn county, Indiana, on September 6th, 1822, and received a common school education and studied law at Franklin college, Indiana. He had held numerous offices, and in 1888 was elected to the thirty-sixth congress. His congressional career from that time to the present was almost unbroken. Holman gained the nicknames of "The Great Objector," and "Watch Dog of the Treasury," from his invariable opposition to whatever he considered extravagance in the appropriation bills. Throughout the war he was a friend of President Lincoln and Secretary Stanton and a steadfast champion of the union cause.

ROBT. DUNLOP HURT.

A Former Las Vegas Seriously Hurt at Los Angeles, Cal., Last Night.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 22.—Robt. D. Dunlop, teller in the Colorado National bank, of Denver, was treated at the receiving hospital in this city by Police Surgeon Hogan, last night, for a number of bad scalp wounds and other serious cuts and bruises. Dunlop arrived from Denver, last Saturday night, on a visit to friends. Shortly before midnight, Adams and Dunlop started for the former's rooms on Hill street. The house is approached by a long flight of unrailed steps. When about twelve feet up, Dunlop slipped and before Adams could stay his fall, he tumbled over the edge of the steps and fell heavily to the ground, landing on his head and lay unconscious until removed to the hospital. It is feared that he may have sustained a number of serious internal injuries.

The Orphans of Actors.

LONDON, England, April 22.—Circulars were issued, to-day, calling for a meeting, next week, at the Criterion theater, of members of the dramatic profession for the purpose of considering the advisability of accepting the offer of Mr. J. Passmore Edwards to erect a large and commodious home for the orphans of actors and also to donate a considerable sum towards its endowment, on condition that an executive committee, representing all branches of the profession, assume the management of the charity.

She's Wide Open.

CHICAGO, Illinois, April 22.—With the change of city government has come the return of the "good old days," of gambler, thug and scoundrel women. There had been carried on a comparatively successful crusade against crime, immorality and gambling, which is all past now. The click of the poker chip and the whirl of the roulette ball is heard in the old places. Burglaries and hold-ups are of nightly occurrence, and painted women are bolder as they parade the downtown streets.

Honor to Gen. Porter.

NEW YORK, April 22.—A brilliant company will assemble, this evening, in the grand banquet room at Delmonico's to do honor to General Horace Porter, the newly-appointed minister to France, who shortly sails for his post of duty. ## MOTHER MCKINLEY'S DAY

ATLANTA, Ga., April 22.—Miss Lillian Pittman, the Atlanta heiress, has been engaged for some months to A. L. McLendon. They were to marry in the fashionable Trinity church, next Sunday. Both are popular in society, and preparations for the wedding were on an unusually elaborate scale. McLendon passed for a widower. Miss Pittman visited the court house, to-day, to attend to some real estate matters, and entirely by accident, strayed into the court rooms. There she found young McLendon defending himself in a divorce suit, brought by his seventeen-year-old wife! The divorce was granted. Miss Pittman fainted, and there will be no wedding.

ONE THAT OCCURRED.

MOTHER MCKINLEY.

The Eighty-Eighth Anniversary of the Mother of the President.

CANTON, Ohio, April 22.—This is a happy day at the old homestead of the McKinley family. It is the eighty-eighth birthday of the mother of the president, and all the morning outcrops have been calling with congratulations, while there has been a steady stream of telegraph boys with messages of similar good cheer. The president and his wife expressed their congratulations over the long-distance telephone shortly after breakfast.

The venerable dame is in the best of health and spirits, and seems to have taken on a new lease of life since the inauguration of her son as president and her visit to Washington. There will be an informal family gathering at the homestead this afternoon.

Sessions Continued.

MOBILE, Ala., April 22.—The proceedings of the international convention of Young Men's Christian Association were continued to-day. The subjects for consideration, this afternoon and evening, include the place and use of athletics, the scope and prominence of industrial education and the proper methods of Bible study.

Latest Washington Tidings.

Yesterday's Santa Fe New Mexican contained a special dispatch from Washington D. C., dated the 21st inst., and worded as follows:
The New Mexican contingent in Washington is thinning out rapidly. Mr. Secretary Alexander left last night for home. Rev. G. S. Madden and F. E. McKinley leave to-night. Frank Parker, candidate for judge, leaves also to-night. M. A. Otero, of Las Vegas, is getting ready to leave, and will do so in a few days. Judge A. L. Morrison goes home to-night, satisfied that he will be given a good position. No appointment of a governor is expected for three weeks and probably longer. High prices in the case of the race and Judge A. L. Morrison has withdrawn. Ex-Gov. Prince is also said to be out of the race, but this is not certain. Pray, of Iowa, has never filed an application for appointment, but has gone home to Iowa, and will move his family to New Mexico and become a citizen of the Territory.
Ex-Delegates Catron and Major Llewellyn are pushing Pedro Ferraz.
Information obtained from the department of justice is to the effect that Judge Santa will serve out the full term of four years.
